Inmate Death at FCI Milan

WASHINGTON, D.C.: On Monday, April 6, 2020, inmate John Ng went into respiratory failure at the Federal Correctional Institution (FCI) Milan, in Milan, Michigan. He was evaluated by institutional medical staff and transported to a local hospital for further treatment and evaluation. While at the local hospital, Mr. Ng tested positive for COVID-19. On Saturday, April 11, 2020, his condition declined and he was placed on a ventilator. On Friday, April 24, 2020, Mr. Ng, who had long-term, pre-existing medical conditions which the CDC lists as risk factors for developing more severe COVID-19 disease, was pronounced dead by hospital staff.

Mr. Ng was a 43 year-old male who was sentenced in the District of Minnesota to a 14-month sentence for Conspiracy to Commit Transportation to Engage in Prostitution and Conspiracy to Engage in Money Laundering. He had been in custody at FCI Milan since October 9, 2019.

FCI Milan is a Low security facility that currently houses 1,430 male offenders.
